

CHANGED DAILY FOR C. H. GILMAN--MAY 19, 1887.

TO-DAY

WE INAUGURATE

OUR THREE DAYS' SALE!

Our object in making a sale at this time is to clear out a surplus stock, and also to reduce our SUMMER GOODS. We have no old-style, clap-trap stuff to sell. On the contrary, you will find everything fresh, bright, and just what is wanted at this season of the year. We claim to give you a larger variety and at less figures than you have ever had before. You might, at some time, have bought some article at less price than we will sell it; but that signifies nothing compared with our sale, where we give you more than two hundred varieties to choose from, all at reduced rates--some 10, 20, 50 and 75 per cent. less than the actual value.

We have not space to tell you of the many kinds, but you must come and see for yourself.

CALIFORNIA'S VICTORY.

An Important Trust Confided to a Citizen of This State.

WASHINGTON, May 18th.--The President to-day appointed Maj. L. Rathbone, of San Francisco, Consul-General to Paris. The fact that California would receive this appointment has been indicated in the dispatches. There has been a long and bitter controversy over this office, and State Senators have presented candidates dates, some of them being distinguished public men. This is the first Consulate-

General in Europe ever given a Californian. A. J. Dutton will be appointed Vice-Consul by Major Rathbone. There are 14 Consuls and 15 Vice-Consuls in the territory over which the Consul-General at Paris has jurisdiction.

REASONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT.

WASHINGTON, May 18th.--[Special.]--The appointment of Maj. Rathbone, of San Francisco, as Consul-General at Paris, has dashed to the ground the buoyant hopes of about a thousand prominent Democratic politicians in different States of the Union. Ex-Senators, ex-Representatives, ex-Judges--men who had rendered valuable service to the party in the Presidential campaign--were applicants for this position. It is one of the choicest of the position, and the salary of the position is more than $8,000, but the emoluments of the position are more than that. The President has been so long delayed in making his selection that Republican to hold it two years because there was no intriguing, no blus-
